

We Stand
With
#Me.Too.

In 2006, activist Tarana Burke, pictured here, founded the Me Too. Movement to help survivors of sexual abuse, assault, exploitation, and harassment, particularly young women of color from low wealth communities, find pathways to healing. Using the idea of “empowerment through empathy,” Burke created the Me Too. Movement to ensure survivors from all walks of life know that they are not alone in their journey. Regarding the 2017 #MeToo hashtag, Burke has said, “It creates hope. It creates inspiration.” But Burke also said, “It will take more than a hashtag, however meaningful it has become, to do the real work that is needed now.” <https://metoomvmt.org/>
