

LITERARY ONOMASTICS AT NEMLA

The annual meeting of the North Eastern Modern Language Association, held in North Dartmouth, Massachusetts, on March 21-22, 1980, included a section on Literary Onomastics. The section was chaired by Dr. Grace Alvarez-Altman, State University of New York, College at Brockport; the Secretary was Professor Thalia Feldman of Canisius College. The following papers were given:

"Names as Symbols in the Works of Jorge Luis Borges,"

by Margaret Ekstrom, St. John Fisher College

"Onomastic Revisions in Flannery O'Connor's Wise

Blood," by Paul F. Ferguson, State University of New York, College at Brockport.

Officers for the section in the 1981 annual meeting are Professor Feldman, Chair, and Professor Ferguson, Secretary. It is hoped that the section will be made permanent at the 1981 meeting.

The Editors