Subject: Your master's thesis

Hi Stephanie,

Laura Emerson contacted me this morning regarding your desire to obtain a copy of your master thesis. In 2012, we started an online repository, Digital Commons at Brockport, and have a great thesis collection, <http://digitalcommons.brockport.edu/theses/>. For those alumni who give us permission to post their theses (which is pretty much anyone I can make contact with!), we are happy to send them their print copy, as well as provide them with the link where they can share it with others and receive monthly emails telling them how many people have downloaded their thesis.

Would you like me to add yours to Digital Commons and send you the print copy? If so, just let me know what email address to send your reports to, and what postal address to send your thesis to.

Best,

Kim L Myers
